

2007 RMNC Christmas Party

Its Ooooo Ver.....

The 2007 edition of the Rocky Mountain Nova Club Christmas Party is over. If you missed it, we missed you. Yes... the weather was cold and the roads were snow packed. Those that braved the elements were rewarded with good food, friendship and fun.

The first few that showed up, setup the tables and chairs and Kathy put out the tablecloths and festive pieces on the tables. We had a boom box playing holiday music and a TV for those that wanted to keep track of the football games. Dan Pace introduced new member Rob Sheesley, he has a 75 NOVA. Kathy cooked a turkey and with all the other great dishes the gang brought, we had a wonderful meal. Santa showed up (courtesy of Ken Gasiorowski). There were eleven youngsters waiting... And presents were given out and pictures taken.

The white elephant gift exchange brought about some fun and laughter. There were several people that thought they had gotten great gifts.... only to lose them very quickly! Several members had to choose many times. A new rule this year dictated that a gift could only move to someone else three times, and then it was done. Stuck had the last ticket but he took Kellner's Teddy Bear, so Dave said this isn't over yet!? A few more moves and it was over all till next year.

We had a 50/50 drawing and decided to give the whole pot away! We split the pot and drew two winners (Mary Ann Pace and Shawna Horton).

Everyone pitched in, the tables and chairs were folded up and the floor vacuumed and the kitchen was cleaned, just as we found it. Folks said their goodbyes and the day ended too soon. It was another great party. Make plans now to be here next year. Things to do next year – “Get the key the night before, and turn up the heat for the next day!” It was a little cool at first, but as the building filled up it got pretty comfortable.
